

"Annual EC Awards Program Guidelines"

Guidelines for our annual awards as determined by the NCBA Executive Council, have been formulated and finalized. Please read them carefully to see if you or anyone you know would fit any of the categories listed. You may submit your own resume or do one for someone else. The awards are for you, the members of the NCBA. If you know of someone who deserves recognition but may feel uncomfortable submitting their own resume, please don't hesitate to contact one of the council members.

NOTE: For the year 2009, we ask that resumes be mailed, emailed or hand-delivered so that the President, or any Executive Council member receive them no later than January 15, 2010.

The awards guidelines are as follows:

"NCBA BYRD BUILT GOLDEN ARROW AWARD"

The "NCBA Golden Arrow Award" was founded by Kenneth Byrd of "Byrd Built Custom Arrows" in 1996. Nominations are submitted to the NCBA Executive Council each year and the winner is determined by majority vote of the council. The award is given to a bowhunter who has been "Physically Challenged" and faces physical adversities which would normally prevent him/her from participating in the sport of Bowhunting. The recipient may, in fact, NOT be able to bowhunt any more! In many cases, the recipient has (legitimately) qualified for the special cross-bow permit, but has chosen to continue to shoot either a traditional or conventional (compound) bow. The recipient of this award is limited to NCBA membership. Nominations should be submitted to the NCBA President each year no later than January 15th for the previous year's award.

LIFETIME MEMBERSHIPS

The secretary shall present any LIFETIME MEMBERSHIP applications received during the previous calendar year to the Executive Council no later than the January EC meeting, preceding the Annual Awards Banquet. Applications will be read aloud and reviewed by the Executive Council. LIFETIME MEMBERSHIP applications will be voted upon by the Executive Council. Final approval by a majority vote of the Executive Council is required.

NCBA "BOWHUNTER HALL OF FAME"

NOMINATIONS may come from any active NCBA member in "Good Standing" and must be received by the president or any member of the Executive Committee no later than the January EC meeting in order to be considered for acceptance into the "Hall" each year. Nominations must be accompanied by an essay, resume and any other documentation available which would help justify consideration and acceptance of the nominee.

There is NO time limitation for documentation of information in the resume. The nomination must also be signed by at least three other NCBA members upon being submitted to the Executive Council for consideration. The recipient of this award is limited to NCBA membership.

CLASSES OF MEMBERSHIP IN THE "HALL OF FAME"

There shall be three "classes" or categorical requirements for membership. These are: "Pioneering", "Service" and "Bowhunting Accomplishments." Nominees must satisfy the requirements of at least "one" of these "classes" to be considered for acceptance.

AWARDS will be presented to new inductees into the "HALL" at the Annual NCBA Awards Banquet, if possible. These awards may take the form of a certificate or plaque, as deemed appropriate by the Executive Council. The design and wording shall be standardized and approved by the Executive Council.
